

FACTS FOR CANDID LOCOS.

1. Every candid Locofoco should be startled at the undisputed fact that, the moment one of the leaders of his party is placed on the bench of the United States Supreme Court—where he is above and beyond the influences of party—he becomes a Whig in principle, and gives Whig decisions!

2. It should strike every candid Locofoco with amazement to reflect upon the well-known fact that, for the very first honorable, high-minded, open-hearted act ever performed by Martin Van Buren, when a contest was going on in which his prospects were at stake—his late Texas letter—he was, by the demagogue leaders of his party, unceremoniously thrown overboard! Too honest, for once, to answer their purposes!

3. It cannot but cause any candid Locofoco to pause in wonder when he reflects upon the ludicrous fact that James K. Polk, who has for years been fishing for the reputation of being considered a Free Trade man, and who, last year, denounced the present tariff from one end of the State of Tennessee to the other, and wrote out and published those denunciations, now, being unexpectedly nominated for the Presidency, and wishing to get the votes of as many friends of the tariff at the north as possible, writes a soft, smooth, demagogical letter to a tariff man in Pennsylvania, for publication, in which he professes to be in favor of a "judicious tariff," that will raise revenue enough to carry on the Government, economically administered, and at the same time afford incidental protection to our home industry!

4. No candid Locofoco can refrain from surmising that something must be wrong with his candidate for the Presidency, when he ponders upon the tell-tale fact that that candidate is eagerly striving to borrow and appropriate as his own, two of the cardinal principles supported by Mr. Clay and the Whig party, to wit: "One Term," and "Friendship for the Tariff."

Let all candid Locofocos reflect upon these four considerations, for to them they are in good faith addressed.—Baltimore Patriot.

A PLEASANT INCIDENT.—The Judge Ford, of Charleston, Indiana, who lost his money in a bet with Mr. Graves upon the last Presidential election, and then sued for its recovery, was elected President of the Charleston Polk Club on Saturday night last. On the following Tuesday, a member of his own Club gave him a sound and well-deserved thrashing, and straightway went off and enrolled himself as a member of the Clay party. Every Locofoco who will whip such rascals as Ford, shall be entitled to admission into the Clay party on application—and no questions asked.—Louisville Journal.

HEALTH IS INDISPENSIBLE TO LONG LIFE: the latter can only be enjoyed by the possession of the former. Man's corporeal structure is so tender and delicate in its nature, that the disorganization of one part deranges the whole; and if one of the members suffer, all the others must suffer with it. How important then to man to guard against every avenue to disease. To all who are suffering with Scrofula in its various forms, incipient consumption, diseases of the skin, or any others arising from an impurity of blood, and derangement of the secretions, we would recommend them to use a few bottles of SANDS' SARSAPARILLA. This invaluable medicine is so well and favorably known, and so generally used by the medical profession generally, that we cheerfully invite the attention of our readers to the notice in this day's paper.—N. Y. Atlas, June 30, 1844.

Prepared and sold, wholesale and retail, by A. B. & D. SANDS, Wholesale Druggists, 79 Fulton st., New York. Price $1 per bottle; 6 bottles for $5.

AN ADDITIONAL FACT. Our readers have doubtless perceived that of late weeks our columns are much more lively than they have been before. Perhaps they imagine we employed new editors, but if so they are mistaken; for the old editor is still at his post, and only differs from his former self, inasmuch as he used to trust to his own genius, but now writes under the inspiration of PETERS' CODIAL LOZENGES. They are likewise glorious things for driving away dull care. Armed with a box of them, duns and disasters have no terror for us, and we feel as happy as an opium-eater in a dream of heaven. We will add that these wonderful Lozenges are for sale at CHAS. STOTT'S.

ARE regarded as one of the most remarkable medicines in this country. They are an effective cathartic, though mild in their operation; they cleanse the stomach and purify the blood; they correct the entire system; regulating the nerves; giving life and energy to the digestive organs; cleanse and heal diseased lungs and liver, cure bilious and other fevers, dyspepsia, headache, dizziness in the head, jaundice, costiveness, fever and ague, worms, colds, &c. No family will be without them after one trial. See Pamphlet. For sale by CHAS. STOTT.

COLUMBIAN ACADEMY. FOR SALE, that well-known establishment, the Columbian Academy, situated on 9th, between G and H streets. The lot is fifty-eight feet six inches fronting 9th street, by one hundred and forty feet deep. The building, 49 feet by 35, is sufficiently large to accommodate two hundred scholars, and the lot will allow of its being enlarged to any desirable size. It also has three large class rooms attached to it, all in complete order.

Adjoining the Academy is a handsome cottage, very convenient, and sufficiently large to accommodate a considerable family. The lot belonging to the cottage is fifty-four feet front by one hundred deep. Both the buildings are forty feet from the street, and raised five feet above its level. This is one of the most beautiful and salubrious spots in the city, situated in the Northern Liberties, which for rapid improvement, activity, and enterprise of its inhabitants far exceeds any section in Washington. A few yards to the south of it, on the same square, is situated the Fourth Presbyterian Church, adjoining it on the north an Episcopal Church will be erected this year. On an adjoining square is St. Patrick's Church. In the immediate vicinity is that splendid establishment, the Patent Office, containing the apartment of the National Institute, which has only been in operation a few years, and is not, perhaps, surpassed by any institution in the world considering the time it has been in operation.

In fact, it is hard to find an establishment of superior advantages to that which is here offered, and it may be said with truth, that such a one has never been offered in this city, and perhaps never will be. The Academy might be changed into two beautiful cottages at a moderate expense.

It may not be amiss to mention that there will be soon a fine market in the Northern Liberties.

The terms will be accommodating, and can be known on application to the subscriber. If not sold privately before the 20th of July, it will then be offered at public sale.

JOHN McLEOD. R. W. DYER & CO. Auctioneers.

P. S. This is the third academy I have erected since I came to Washington, at an expense of upwards of $21,000. Although I propose this one for sale I have no notion of giving up teaching. I am still healthy and very active, and may live long enough to build another academy.

THE STAR OF THE SOUTH! LOUISIANA ELECTION. THE FOURTH DISTRICT.

The returns are yet insufficient to enable us to say who is elected to Congress from the Fourth District—matters stand precisely where they did at our last publication. The vote of St. Landry has been received, and proves to be the same as the account published by the Tropic. For Congress, the vote was as follows:

Bordelon (Whig) - 540
Morse (Locofoco) - 282

Bordelon's majority - 258

The vote doubtless includes that of Calcasieu. The two parishes are always returned together. It is stated, however, on an endorsement on a slip which came through the post office yesterday, that the vote of Calcasieu—75 majority for Morse—was rejected on account of some informality. If this be so, Bordelon's majority is 75 more than we have put down. This intelligence, however, needs confirmation.

According to the report of the Courier, Messrs. Quirk and Callihan, Locofocos, are elected to the House from Opelousas, together with three Whigs, Glaze, Campbell, and Rogers. The Locofocos have likewise elected two of their candidates to the Convention from the same District.

THE STAR OF THE SOUTH!

LOUISIANA ELECTION.

THE FOURTH DISTRICT.

The returns are yet insufficient to enable us to say who is elected to Congress from the Fourth District—matters stand precisely where they did at our last publication. The vote of St. Landry has been received, and proves to be the same as the account published by the Tropic. For Congress, the vote was as follows:

N. O. Bee of the 10th.

Report says that the entire vote of Calcasieu has been thrown out in consequence of some informality. If that be the case, Bordelon's majority in the county will be about 350, giving him a fair chance of success. It will be seen that the report from St. Landry and St. Mary, which we published two days ago, is perfectly accurate.—
